

AUTOBIOGRAPHY

I was born on 16 February 1912, the second son of John (Baptist) LAHR and his wife Hedwig nee RETTIG in Forbach/Lothr. In 1918 I moved with my parents from Lothringen. From the age of 6-14 I attended the Volksschule in Bendorf (Shein). From 1927 to 1930 I learned the salesman occupation in Koblenz at the firm Ednard Eicke GMBH, following which time I was active until August 1932 as an assistant at the Rhein Wall factory in Bendorf. In September 1932 I entered into the at the time just beginning volunteer working corps in which I served until 31 December 1934 as a working man (scribe), clerk, haup leader and quartermaster. In December 1934 I became employed as an office (Bure) employee with the high presidium of the Rhein province in Koblenz. In January 1938 I was, as a criminal commissioner, taken over to the Secret State Police in Koblenz. I am still there in that service today. I have been married since 29 October 1935 and have two sons, one aged 3/4 and one 1 and 3/4. I left the Evangelical church in 1936.
